

Calling all adult jazz enthusiasts - Weekend warriors, part-time players, former boppers or instrumentalists new to jazz!

It's time to dig your horn out of the back of the closet and get ready to jam. Join us for an ensemble where grown-ups will meet every Sunday evening to regain their jazz chops and get some new licks!

Register
now!

Seven Ensemble Sessions: Sundays, 4:00 - 6:00 or 6:30 - 8:30
April 11, 18, 25
May 2, 9
May 16 - Final Concert
May 23 - Wrap-up Session

The class culminates with a performance at a local jazz club on Sunday, May 16!

Class Fee: $180 for the semester, plus $25 one-time registration fee

Instructor: Pianist Composer Oscar Perez

Oscar Perez, one of New York's most sought after players, attended jazz performance programs at the University of North Florida and the New England Conservatory in Boston, where he studied with Danilo Perez. Oscar completed his studies at the Aaron Copland School of Music at Queens College in New York and he received his master's degree under the guidance of Sir Roland Hanna. Oscar recently received a highly-coveted Chamber Music award for his compositional skills.

Jazz House Kids - 14 South Park Street, 2nd Floor within SMAPA, Montclair, NJ 07042
www.jazzhousekids.org | 973.744.2273